Paul D. Francis
Chief of Police

Job Opening

The Town of Essex Police Department is seeking qualified applicants to fill one Full-Time Police Officer vacancy. The Essex Police Department is actively seeking certified police officer candidates who are highly motivated and want to work for a professional, community oriented & accredited law enforcement agency. The position available falls under the direction of the Chief of Police and is covered by the collective bargaining agreement between the Town of Essex and the Essex Police Association/MassCOP Local 270.

It is the duty and responsibility of a police officer to exercise authority consistent with the obligations imposed by his or her oath of office, and said officer is accountable to his or her superior officers, and must promptly obey legitimate orders. The officer must also coordinate his or her efforts with those of other members of the department so that their teamwork may ensure continuity of purpose and maximum achievement of police objectives. The officer must be able to identify criminal offenders, criminal activity and when appropriate, apprehend offenders and participate in subsequent court proceedings. The job requires the officer to reduce the opportunity for the commission of crime through preventative patrol and other measures, aid individuals who are in danger of physical harm, as well as facilitate the movement of vehicular and pedestrian traffic. A full list of the job description and required duties is available upon request.

Candidates are preferred to have graduated an MPTC Approved (Full-Time) Basic Recruit Police Officer Training Academy. Candidates with the appropriate MPTC exemption after having completed the MPTC Bridge Academy Training; have worked as a law enforcement officer in an aggregate amount equal to or greater than 2,400 hours performing specific police duties and functions that include exercising the powers of arrest and that exclude police details of any kind; and successfully completed their mandated agency annual training requirements for each of the years during which they have worked as a law enforcement officer; and have not had an interruption or break in service of greater than five years from performing specific police duties will also be considered.

Applicants must be 21 years of age, a U.S. citizen, must possess a valid Massachusetts driver's license and must have a high school diploma or GED, have good moral character, and pass a host of tests which may include but are not limited to; a physical agility test; drug test; medical exam; psychological exam; as well as complete a favorable background check. The candidates must also possess a Class A license to carry firearms under the qualifying laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

As stated above, the successful candidate will be covered by the collective bargaining agreement of the Essex Police Association/MassCOP Local 270. Under the contract, the present yearly step 1 patrolman base wage as of July 1, 2023 is $66,081.19. Full-time police officers are eligible by contract for paid vacation time, 13 paid holidays per year, 2 personal days, education incentives, shift differential for evenings and midnights, annual sick leave, 75% town paid health insurance premium, and various additional stipends.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume to the Administrative Sergeant at dbruce@essexma.org to receive an application and instructions, as well as a copy of the Essex Police Department Personnel Selection Policy #4.11.

Dates posted: 12/08/2023 through 01/08/2024 at 8:00 a.m. Applications accepted until 02/05/2024.

The Essex Police Department conducts background checks as part of the hiring process. No person who has been convicted of a felony or of an offense involving Chapter 94C or 209A of the Massachusetts General Laws, or similar violations in other areas, or persons who have been decertified as a police officer by the Massachusetts P.O.S.T. Commission or by any other state will be considered for employment as a police officer.
